Parking

There is on street Council pay and display parking available outside the centre. Check the pay and display sign for Blue Badge exemptions.

Please note, the private CCTV controlled car park at the back of the Charles House building must not be used. If you use this, you will receive a parking fine.

The next closest pay and display car park is at Albion Place (NN1 1UD) and this is approximately 0.5 miles (10 minute walk) from the centre.

When you arrive

Remember to bring two forms of ID with you.

To enter the building there is an intercom system. Press the call button labelled Capita at the entrance to the building and wait for a response.

Once you are inside the building, turn immediately left and Capita's reception is next to the main entrance. To enter Capita's reception, press the internal intercom and wait for the receptionist to open the automatic doors.

Useful info

There are ramps and lifts available and the centre has accessible toilets.
